Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ’s)

1. What is the Information System Security Association (ISSA)?

The Information Systems Security Association (ISSA)® is a not-for-profit, international organization of information security professionals and practitioners. It provides educational forums, publications, and peer interaction opportunities that enhance the knowledge, skill, and professional growth of its members. ISSA is the community of choice for international cybersecurity professionals dedicated to advancing individual growth, managing technology risk and protecting critical information and infrastructure. ISSA has local and regional chapters throughout the world, and members are required to join a chapter in conjunction with their ISSA membership. You may also join multiple chapters if you live and work in different regions, or if you want to connect with members in multiple locals. Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ’s)

History:
The Information Systems Security Association Northern Virginia Chapter (ISSA-NOVA), chartered in August 2002, represents one of the fastest-growing technology corridors in the nation. We are a member-focused organization whose goal is to ensure that its membership keeps abreast of the most recent information pertaining to IS topics and issues. Monthly meetings address diverse subjects ranging from technology to policy perspectives, and delivery formats include informative presentations, tag team efforts, and panel discussions.

ISSA-NOVA received two Prestigious Service Awards from ISSA International, including the 2004 Chapter of the Year and the 2004 Communication Program of the Year. This marks the first time a single chapter was awarded both recognitions.

We are proud to acknowledge these service awards and hope that it will lead to even greater efforts in service to our growing Chapter membership. ISSA-NOVA was designated Chapter of the Year, ‘a prestigious recognition that the association bestows upon a chapter in recognition of their contribution to the ISSA and their community.’ Normally the award is based upon three years of accomplishments. This is the first time that the award has been presented based upon only two years of activities. In addition, ISSA each year recognizes one of its chapters with the President’s Award for Communication Program of the Year, ‘prestigious recognition that the association bestows upon a chapter in recognition of their contribution to the ISSA and the Security Profession through the use of a chapter’s efforts to communicate with its members both with its newsletter and website.’

The registration fee includes attendance at the study group, textbook, and dinner! (The cost of the CISSP exam is not included.)

Reasons you should join our study group:
• Great instructors. Many of our instructors were pioneers in the information security field and personally worked with some of the people we read about in our textbook
• Low cost. Much more economical than Boot Camps or other comparable study groups.
• Group dynamics of a live, instructor-led study group
• Time for things to sink in. This is not a one-week boot camp. We want you to learn, not cram.
• Hang out with other smart people. Meet and make friends with other people who are serious about advancing their careers. Enjoy intelligent conversation.
• Meet and network with new people working in your industry.
• Earn CPEs. Already have another certification? This will likely count toward CPEs for existing certs.
• Structure. A physical class imposes a little external discipline to your study schedule. A little peer pressure to keep up with the group can be a good thing. Some people want to go at a slower pace, but most of us need a little push.
• Chapter Membership. Join ISSA within three months of class completion and the Chapter will refund the chapter dues.
11. How does my organization become an ISSA-NOVA Chapter sponsor?

Sponsorship opportunities are available at the Platinum, Gold, Silver, and Bronze levels. Contact sponsors@issa-nova.org for information on sponsoring the ISSA-NOVA Chapter. A list of current chapter sponsors is located at https://issa-nova.org/sponsors/

12. What are ISSA-NOVA’s partner organizations?
